RE: Child Care Administration Preliminary Allocations
For Counties, January 1, 2005 – December 31, 2005
For Tribes, October 1, 2004 – September 30, 2005

PURPOSE: This memo provides notice of the preliminary Child Care Administration and Operations allocations for counties for the period of January 1, 2005 through December 31, 2005 and for tribes for the period of October 1, 2004 through September 30, 2005.

BACKGROUND:

Wisconsin Statute s. 49.155(3m) allows the Department to issue child care administration allocation based on a comparison of the following amounts: five percent (5%) of Child Care benefits distributed for your County/Tribe in the current year, five percent (5%) of Child Care benefits distributed for your County/Tribe in the immediately preceding year, and Twenty Thousand dollars ($20,000). The greatest of these amounts will be the final allocation.

POLICY:

The allocations in the attached chart were calculated by comparing five percent (5%) of the Child Care benefits distributed based on CARS/CORE data from June 1, 2003 through May 31, 2004 and CARES data from July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004 and Twenty Thousand dollars ($20,000). The greater of these amounts is your agency's 2005 Child Care Administration and Operations preliminary allocation.

Your agency's final allocation for the 2005 contract period will be determined during the summer of 2005. The final 2005 allocation amount will be the greatest of the following:

- Five percent of the child care benefits distributed based on CORE data from June 2004 through May 2005 and CARES data from July 2004 through June 2005;
- Five percent (5%) of the Child Care benefits distributed based on CARS/CORE data from June 1, 2003 through May 31, 2004 and CARES data from July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004; and
- Twenty Thousand dollars ($20,000).

For the final 2005 allocation, counties will receive an addendum to the 2005 Child Care Administration Contract and tribes will receive the adjustment in the 2005/2006 State/Tribal Contract.
